

Looking for some on-line summer learning / review and fun?
Here is a list of possible websites to use.

Disclaimer:

Although I have previewed all of these sites, I cannot guarantee that the content, quality, advertising or connection remain the same as the date I previewed the sites.

If you note any inappropriate or incorrect material on the site, please email me and I will remove the site from this list.

As always, parental supervision is necessary when using any website.

Veronica Dumontet (Veronica.Dumontet@sd23.bc.ca)

Principal / Directrice

Ecole Belgo Elementary School

Games for students – early primary

<http://www.boowakwala.com/enfants/boowakwala-navigation-games.html>

Collection of websites for students in Immersion

<http://fslactivities.ca/kidsplayground/>

BBC French Immersion kids websites

<http://www.bpl.bc.ca/kids/websites-and-apps/french-immersion>

French Immersion Homework Toolbox (Ontario)

<http://www.lkdsb.net/Programs/fi.htm>

Canadian Parents for French Crossword Puzzles & Word Matches

<http://cpf.ca/en/resources/for-students/games/>

Digital Dialects – games for learning French vocabulary – beginner and advanced

<http://www.digitaldialects.com/French.htm>

TiPirate – interactive games for different age groups – choose 2-4 years, 4-6 years, or older

<http://tipirate.net/>

Tumblebooks – ebooks for children – listen and follow along the text. Choose "French" language. Please note – the level of the books varies significantly from one book to the next.

User name and password: Belgo / books

http://www.tumblebooks.com/library/asp/customer\_login.asp